

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION FORM 2018-19

Membership Categories:

Member: This category includes professionals who are active in the field of archaeology in New Brunswick, have held or are able to hold a professional archaeological field research permit/license of any level (site excavation, field evaluation, field survey, reconnaissance, or construction monitoring) in any of the three Canadian Maritime provinces (New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, or Prince Edward Island). Members have the right to vote in all Association matters. Members who have signed a government oath of office (federal, provincial, municipal) may not run for a position on the Association Board of Directors or Executive, as this could present potential for conflict of interest.

Annual Membership Fee: $40

Associate: This category of membership generally includes professionals who are active in associated fields such as Anthropology, Geology, History, First Nations Studies, Aboriginal Heritage, Museology, Conservation, and Palaeontology, or who are managers of professional archaeological groups. This category may also include professional archaeologists who are archaeological field technicians and graduates with degrees in archaeology or associated fields who are currently working in the field of archaeology, but have not held an archaeological field research permit/license in the Canadian Maritime Provinces. Associates have the right to vote in all Association matters, but may not run for a position on the Association Board of Directors or Executive.

Annual Membership Fee: $30

Student: This category of membership includes students of archaeology or other related disciplines (Anthropology, Geology, History, First Nations Studies, Museology, Conservation, Palaeontology), or those who are currently working in the field of archaeology in the Maritimes. Students do not have voting privileges and may not run for a position on the Association Board of Directors or Executive.
